Now Hiring: Director of Community Impact – United Way of Central Texas (Temple, TX)

• Location: Temple, TX

Job Type: Full-Time, Salaried

Required License: LMSW (Licensed Master Social Worker)

CLOSES: June 6, 2025

Are you passionate about health equity, social service collaboration, and making a tangible difference in your community? United Way of Central Texas (UWCT) is seeking a mission-driven Director of Community Impact to lead key programs that serve underinsured and uninsured residents of Central Texas.

About the Role:

As Director of Community Impact, you'll manage and grow two cornerstone UWCT programs:

- Community Hub (in partnership with Baylor Scott & White Health) bringing together health and social care coordination.
- Bridges to Wellness and Health a UWCT initiative that helps individuals access prescriptions, durable medical equipment, and transportation to and from medical appointments.
- You'll also organize our monthly Community Connections meetings—bringing together local nonprofits, agencies, and providers to share resources and collaborate for collective impact.
- Manage UWCT Community Investment Grant

This position reports directly to the President/CEO and works closely with the Community Impact Coordinator.

Key Responsibilities:

- Manage the daily operations of Community Hub and Bridges to Wellness and Health programs.
- Oversee service delivery, tracking, and coordination for underinsured/uninsured individuals.
- Supervise, mentor, and recruit social work/public service interns.

- Plan and lead the monthly Community Connections meeting (topic selection, coordination, facilitation).
- Represent UWCT at community events and conduct outreach to raise awareness of available programs.
- Collaborate with internal staff and external partners to ensure alignment with UWCT's mission and community needs.

What We're Looking For:

Required:

- Licensed Master Social Worker (LMSW) in the State of Texas.
- Master's degree in Social Work or a related human services field.
- Strong communication, organizational, and community engagement skills.

Preferred:

- 3+ years of experience in nonprofit program management, health/social services, or community outreach.
- Previous experience supervising interns or students.
- Facilitation and public speaking experience a plus.

Why Join Us?

At United Way of Central Texas, you'll be part of a small but powerful team working to improve lives across our region. This is more than just a job—it's an opportunity to help shape healthier, more resilient communities through hands-on leadership and collaboration.

Ready to Apply?

Submit your resume and a brief cover letter to Veshell.greene@uwct.org. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled.